

BOSTON ATHLETES WIN MANY HONORS IN N. E. CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

Boston, Aug. 27.—Three hundred of New England's leading athletes competed in a rain here today in the New England A. A. U. championship game. The Boston Athletic association team won 14 first places.

Jimmy Connelly, of Georgetown, and the B. A. A. despite the soaked track, negotiated the mile run in 4 minutes 24.5 seconds. "Jake" Dicks of the B. A. A. defeated Earl Dudley, his club captain, in a fast 440-yard run.

William D. Hayes, of the B. A. A., won both the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Ned Gourdin, holder of the world's running broad jump record, cleared 22 feet in capturing the event. Matthew Jacobson, of Lowell, established the new New England record in the discus throw with a toss of 123 feet, one inch.

First place winners were as follows: 100-yard dash: William D. Hayes, B. A. A., 19.1 seconds. 220-yard dash: William D. Hayes, B. A. A., 23.1 seconds. 440-yard dash: James W. Driscoll, B. A. A., 59.5 seconds. 880-yard dash: George W. Marsters, B. A. A., 1 minute, 59 seconds. 1 mile run: James Connelly, B. A. A., 4 minutes 24.5 seconds. 1.5 mile run: James Connelly, Dorchester club, 25 minutes, 31 seconds. 120-yard high hurdles: J. P. Sullivan, B. A. A., 17 seconds. 220-yard low hurdles: J. J. Sullivan, B. A. A., 17 seconds. 440-yard hurdles: J. J. Sullivan, B. A. A., 59 seconds. 8 mile walk: Edgar G. Wilson, B. A. A., 23 minutes, 45 seconds. Running hop, skip and jump: A. J. Plankney, Pere Marquette, K. of C., 43 feet, 11 inches. Running broad jump: E. O. Gourdin, unattached, 22 feet. Running high jump: Gail Robinson, B. A. A., 5 feet 10 inches. Pole vault: Kenneth B. Libbey, B. A. A., 11 feet, 6 inches. Javelin throw: Maine Tiers, B. A. A., 149 feet, 1.2 inches. 15 pound shot put: Lawler, B. A. A., 43 feet 3.4 inches. Discus throw: Matthew Jacobson, Lowell, 123 feet 1 inch, (new N. E. record).

RAIN CAUSES POSTPONEMENT OF WEEK-END GAMES

The baseball fans of eastern Connecticut passed a quiet week end as games scheduled for Saturday and Sunday were cancelled owing to the deluge that made swimming pools out of baseball diamonds. The greatest disappointment was the postponement of the Kacey-Framingham game. The rain let up Sunday in morning and at three o'clock Sunday afternoon the diamond at the Fairgrounds was in good shape but the Framingham team was late in getting to the grounds and just as they appeared there came a downpour that put any possibility of a game out of the question. A crowd of nearly 1000 had gathered to see this game and they were given rain checks at the gate.

The Framingham team will appear here on Sept. 10th, the Sunday after Labor day. Next Sunday the local team plays at Manchester and on Labor day plays a return game with the Hudson team at Hudson, Mass.

PUBLIC LINKS TOURNEY

Toledo, O., Aug. 27.—(By the A. P.)—The nation's best public links golfers—the Hagens and Sarzens of the future—today put in their finishing practice touches over the Ottawa park course and tomorrow will play 36 hole qualifying rounds in the first national public links tournament.

The entries tonight totalled 138 with players from every section of the country.

Tomorrow, the thirty six holes of qualifying play also will count toward sectional team play, tennisman teams having been selected from New England, the East, the Middle-west and the west.

The New England team includes Boston and Hartford, the eastern team New York, Newark, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, the mid-west covers Chicago, Toledo, Dayton and Pittsburgh, while St. Louis and cities west make up the western team.

BRITISH PLAYERS PAIRED WITH AMERICAN AMATEURS

New York, Aug. 27.—Most of the nine British players of the Walker cup team entered in the National Amateur golf championship at Brookline, Mass., next week, are paired with prominent American amateur players, including Outmet, "Chick" Evans, J. Jess Sweetzer and others. The British players are: Bernard Darwin, Royal and Ancient Golf Club; Roger H. Wethered, Royal and Ancient Golf Club; Robert Harris, Royal and Ancient Golf Club; Cyril J. H. Tolley, Royal and Ancient Golf Club; W. B. Torrance, Edinburgh Burgess; C. V. L. Hooman, Burnham and Berrow; Colin C. Aylmer, Ranelagh; John Caven, Cochrane Castle; W. Willis Mackenzie, Mertonhall.

Coach Bresnahan of the University of Iowa is arranging to take a group of his star track performers to the A. A. U. championships at Newark next month.

GIANTS INCREASE THEIR LEAD WHILE CARDS GIVE WAY TO CLIMBING CUBS

New York, Aug. 27.—Playing better baseball at bat, on the bases and in defense, than at any time during the season, the New York Giants turned back in defeat during the week, three of their most stubborn obstacles to the pennant—Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis—and increased their lead over the second place club to seven games.

McGraw's men took one game from the Cubs, two from the Reds and three from the Cardinals today, played almost perfectly on the defense and converted their comparatively small number of hits into "just enough runs."

In the American league New York and St. Louis continued to chase and nose sprint for the leadership, each club winning four and losing three games, leaving the Yankees in the lead today by the margin of half game.

In tomorrow's game, postponed from today because of rain, the Yankees will face the Browns best hurler, Shocker, and must defeat him to hold the lead.

Through their three straight losses to the Giants, the Cardinals today dropped from second place making way for the Cubs. The latter club, like the St. Louisians had their troubles during the week and lost early chances to jump to the second position.

The Pirates winning streak was broken Friday by Brooklyn, which defeated them in both ends of a double header. The Superbas broke even, and the Phillies and Braves failed to shake off their losing habits.

The Reds played good ball, taking four games from the Pirates by winning two games today from the Braves.

Cobb's Tigers had the best record of the week in the American. They led the other clubs in the hitting column and displayed a sterling brand of play a field.

Their loss to Washington today was their second defeat in a week of eight games. Detroit is in a position to take the lead about the Browns and the Yankees crack from the strain of their long battles.

The Athletics and Red Sox ran into excellent hurling, fell off in their hitting and fielded miserably, dropping a majority of their games.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN DUNDEE-WILSON BOUT

Several bouts that will grip the attention of the fans are down for decision this week. The two that stand out above the others are the Johnny Dundee and Vincent "Pepper" Martin mix and the Harry Wills and Tuck Jackson imbroglio.

Johnny Dundee is being carded to cross gloves tonight at the New York Yacht club while Wills and Jackson will settle their argument on the following night with Ebbe's Field furnishing the battleground.

Dundee Odds on Choice

Johnny Dundee is an odds-on choice to win over Martin in facing the Scottish "Wojo" will tug off the verdict. Martin, however, is being backed in the event a knockout is delivered. The odds are 5 to 1 on a sleep producer being put across the Dundee.

On his left hand, which carries the knockout power, having laid low a number of opponents.

In the semi-final Pete Hartley, Leo Flynn's veteran, is expected to meet Thomas a stablemate of Martin's will swap blows. Hughey Hutchison, well known here for his fistic prowess is on the same card. He will meet Johnny Cooney in a six rounder.

Wills-Jackson Tuesday

The Wills-Jackson bout Tuesday night is expected to furnish an accurate line up, the abiding feud, Harry Wills and Tuck Jackson, who is being ballyhooed as Jack Dempsey's most formidable opponent. Jackson, though unknown in the East has been praised to the skies for his pugilistic ability and unless he proves a complete frost, he may give Wills a worthy battle.

MANY FAST HORSES SLATED FOR READVILLE

Readville, Mass., Aug. 27.—The Readville park track has the call for the Grand Circuit trotters and pacers this week. The meeting will last four days instead of the usual five. More than $5,000 will be distributed in purse money daily.

The opening day will see Margaret Dillon, New England's pacings queen, compete in free-for-all races. Other entrants for the event are Jackson Grattan, Jimmy McKerron and John Henry, McGregor the Great, owned by Samuel Small, of Atlantic will make his first start in two years when he competes in the 2:08 trot.

The feature of Tuesday's card is the 27th renewal of the Massachusetts stake, valued at $5,000. The entrants include Car Worthy, owned by Henry L. Bowles, of Springfield, Bill Sharon, Peter the Brewer, Taurida and Flinana.

The American Horse Breeders' Futurity for foals of 1919, will be the leading event Wednesday's racing. The purse is $4,600.

Twenty horses have been entered in the 2:13 class trot, to be decided on Wednesday. The old time horse lovers of New England will hold their reunion at the track on Thursday.

HORNSEY TIES UP FOR HOME RUN HONORS

St. Louis, Aug. 27.—Rogers Hornsby got his thirty second home run of the season in today's game against New York, tying Kenneth Williams of the local Americans for the season's record.

Married Men vs. Single Men

The "Flatirch Dodgers" and the "Single Men" will play the second game of the series on the Battlegrounds this (Monday) evening. As everyone knows the first game was gathered by the married men and much is shown as to who the second game will go. "Two Gun" Bowens and "Kidnapper" Woodmansee are scouting around for a faster infield but had to go some to get ahead of the Dodgers as they are very spry on their feet due to dodging flatirons.

"Smoky" Stone will do the slab work for the married men and of course will turn them back to the bench the same as usual. "Bullet" Pedace will twirl for the single men. There is hopes he will have better support. The Dodgers will have a new fast outfield which at one time wore spikes in the big leagues. "Farmer Swain", "Close shave" Pedace, and "Leather pusher" Pedace are the new ones. "Trick feet" Riskey will probably do the catching for Smoky Stone. "Bust 'em up" Riskey is slow recovering from the bump of a flatiron. "Home run Lash" will be seen in his new pink uniform the Mrs. made for him. Jack Counihan the "artistic mail thrower" will call balls and strikes so be careful boys he will have his two guns handy. Leonard the "fence buster" will be seen in the married lineup. He has recovered from the measles and crab bites. Game starts at 8:30, daylight. An armed guard will patrol the press box to prevent another kidnapping stunt.

Dart's defeated by Rosedale

The Greenville Rosedale has won their seventh successive victory by defeating the Dart Sluggers 5 to 4. The feature of the game was the pitching of J. Goldblatt, allowing only two hits. The Greenville Rosedale, would like to arrange a game with the Arrow. For further details call 1304, between 6 and 6:30.

Second Match Today

Rumso, N. J., Aug. 27.—A quasi-foreign team, the Anglo-American Eastcott four and the Flamingo club, an American team, will meet in the second elimination contest of the Herbert Memorial polo tournament tomorrow at the Rumson club.

SPORT NOTES

The Texas-Oklahoma league, which blew up recently, will be allowed to reserve all its players.

A number of American association players drew heavy fines recently for rough-house tactics on the ball field.

Roy Thomas' Fort Smith outfit has been having a hard time trying to keep out of the Western association cellar.

A fifteen round setto between Jack Malone of St. Paul and Bryan Downey of Columbus is to be the Labor day attraction in the Ohio capital.

Charleston has a big lead and is going strong in the South Atlantic league pennant race.

Worcester is making elaborate preparations for the entertainment of the annual regatta on the New England Association of Amateur Oarsmen on Labor day.

A homeless team that is being carried along by the West Texas league is designated in the league standing as the "Orphans."

Harry Stokes is racing Walter Sterling 2:05 1-2 on the Ohio half-mile track. The gelding topped the summary in a 1:10 event last week at Springfield.

Howard Camnitz, once a star twirler of the Pittsburgh Pirates, is now piloting the Winchester team of the Blue Grass league.

Herman and Larry Layne, twins, and star outfielders of the Bristol, Tenn., team are booked for a trial with the Detroit Tigers.

The release of Pitcher Hy Fowlkes of the Memphis Southern league team has been purchased by the Chicago White Sox for the fifty sum of $10,000.

Bill Kenworthy, who was on the ineligible list earlier in the season, has signed a new contract to pilot the Portland team of the Pacific Coast league.

Jay Kirke, the Louisville slugger, and Wilbur Goode of Kansas City have been battling on even terms for the American association batting honors.

Earl S. Barnett 2:14 1-2 continues to bowl over his opponents in the Del-Mar-Via-Pen Circuit meetings, his latest achievement being at Pocomoke City last week.

The Glen Echo golf course at St. Louis is reported in excellent condition for the Western women's championships to be played there the week of Sept. 11.

Pitcher Woodward of the New Haven Eastern league team pitched and won a double-header from Albany, his first time after his "latest" suspension.

The St. Joseph team, leaders of the Western league, while only an average road team, has come very near unbeatable on the home lot.

It's toasted. This one extra process gives a delightful quality that can not be duplicated
